

Twenty years of economic and social rights advocacy

On the occasion of its 20th anniversary, CESR invites you to a panel event and reception examining progress in the field of economic and social rights over the last two decades and exploring challenges that lie ahead.

Speakers will include:

Philip Alston
Professor of Law, New York University School of Law

Manuel José Cepeda
Jurist, Universidad de los Andes

Irene Khan
Director General, International Development Law
Organization

Carin Norberg
Former Director, Nordic Africa Institute

Alicia Ely Yamin
Director of the Program on the Health Rights of Women and Children at the François-Xavier Bagnoud Center for Health and Human Rights, Harvard University

Chris Jochnick
Director, Private Sector Engagement, Oxfam America

Monday 4 February 2012 at 6.30pm

D'Agostino Hall
Center for Human Rights and Global Justice
New York University
108 West Third Street
New York, NY 10012.

If interested in attending, please contact Luke Holland, CESR Communications Coordinator, at rsvp@cesr.org.